To: All Churchdown Retirement Home Residents

The Residents' Committee will be assembling on June 7th at 7:00 P.M. to discuss changes to the communal parking policy. As you are aware, a proposal was raised in May —135.— a dedicated area for residents to park.

—136.—, residents may park in any public space. However, there have been complaints about the increasing number of residents parking in the street, which has caused other local people to be unable to park by their homes.

—137.—. The proposed policy will allocate specific parking areas for residents and guarantee that there is —138.— parking for local people.

If you cannot attend the meeting and would like to put forward your thoughts, please contact care home supervisor Scott Jenkins at 913-555-1953.

To whom it may concern,

I am hoping you will be able to give me some information on how to —143.— a watch.

I have had model X27B for three years, and —144.— last week, it worked fine. Now, it doesn't work.

I thought the battery was dead, so I changed the battery. —145.—, it does still not work. It is clear that the watch malfunctions due to a mechanical defect.

As there are still two years remaining in the warranty period, I'd like to have my watch repaired free of charge.
